

REMARKS

In the Ex parte Quayle action mailed December 29, 2006, under 35 U.S.C. 132(a), the Examiner objected to an amendment made to the disclosure, because the amendment allegedly introduces new matter into the disclosure. Specifically, the Examiner objected to the following subject matter: "Alternatively the length of the tag may be adjusted in response the idle period, such that a longer tag will serve to offset the increase in error associated with a longer idle period." Except for the objection to the amendment, the Examiner indicated that the application is otherwise in condition for allowance.

To expedite prosecution, Applicant has deleted the subject matter objected to by the Examiner. As such, Applicant respectfully submits the application is in condition for allowance. Should the Examiner wish to discuss this case with the undersigned, the Examiner is invited to call the undersigned at (312) 913-3340.

Respectfully submitted,
